Fitranah and Fidyah

Fitranah is an compulsory act of charity for all Muslims who have food in excess of their needs and is given on behalf of every member of the household. This allows the poor and needy to also enjoy food on Eid day. It should be given before Eid prayer as food. However as this is not practical in the UK, we collect the equivalent monetary amount and send this for the purchase of foods overseas in time for its distribution by Eid.

Fidyah is also charity given when one is unable to fast due to valid reasons (eg ill health, old age...).

Throughout the month of Ramadan 2025 and on Eid day, we have been collecting your Fitranah and Fidyah. Our long standing partnership with Muslim Charity has allowed us to allocate money in advance of Eid day, taking into account how much has been received by 27th Ramadan and the forecasted amount to be received to Eid day. Muslim Charity then transfers this money to various countries to purchase and then distribute foods in time for Eid. As soon as Eid prayer ends, we confirm the total amount collect, to ensure at least this amount has been transferred.

This year we collected £25307.75 as Fitranah and Fidyah from our supporters

Aid was sent to the following countries:

- India
- Pakistan
- Somaliland
- Yemen

We would like to thank our community for the trust you have given to us and Muslim Charity. Our partnership with Muslim Charity has been built and strengthened over many years. Their transparency and speed in reporting back are two reasons why we have continued to work with them. On Eid day we received photos of the distribution of aid and we present some of these to you on the following pages.

India

Food packs were distributed in India, ahead of Eid Ul Fitr, to allow those in need to be able to eat properly on the day of celebration.

Pakistan

Just like in India, food packs were distributed before Eid, to allow families in Pakistan to celebrate properly.

Somaliland

Somaliland

Yemen

Muslim Charity ensured they had personnel in Yemen, to distribute your Fitranah and Fidyah.

Yemen
